Round-About

Volume V • Fall/Winter 2000

ROUND HILL HOTEL AND VILLAS, MONTEGO BAY, JAMAICA, W.I.

DEAR GUEST,

As I contemplate all that is Round Hill, it is difficult to pinpoint our particular allure. Our resort has consummate cachet, just as it did at its inception – a remarkable and resilient tribute to true style. Round Hill is timeless; it has endured the fleeting trends of nearly five decades and it continues to captivate with a style that is simple and elegant—simply Round Hill.

We are very pleased to announce the debut of a marvelous book that celebrates Round Hill's style. Round Hill is the loving creation of renowned photographer, David Massey. Two years in the making, the exquisite "coffee table" book features some one hundred and twenty images of Round Hill, from evocative dreamscapes that recall the views from villa verandahs, to intimate close-ups that capture the glorious details that make Round Hill so remarkable.

The text of the book was composed by our founder, John Pringle. His memoirs of Round Hill take us back to the early days. Since its auspicious opening, Round Hill has hosted the celebrated artists of the century—poets, playwrights, designers, filmmakers, authors and actors—offering inspiration in its sheer tranquility and endless amusement in the ease of its ambiance. John Pringle's memories evoke the essence of Round Hill that gives us our legacy. His eloquent words are complemented by an exclusive collection of his personal photographs. We are privy to the intimate moments of the first "Round Hill gang" and we are transported to these halcyon days. One can almost hear the echoes of Cole Porter tunes, of the witty repartee of Noel Coward and Alfred Hitchcock and the carefree laughter of Grace Kelly, Clark Gable and Lauren Bacall.

Michael Thomas has graciously provided the forward to Round Hill. Mr. Thomas has made an annual sojourn to Round Hill for nearly fifty years and he is uniquely qualified to provide a historical perspective on the Round Hill guest experience. Round Hill is available in the Pineapple Shop and on our new web site www.roundhilljamaica.com. Make Round Hill a part of your personal style with this beautiful limited edition portrait of our resort.

Come to Round Hill, and immerse yourself in style! I look forward to seeing you here very soon.

Warm regards,

JOSEF FORSTMAYR
Managing Director
Round Hill Development, Ltd.

ABACO BEACH RESORT & BOAT HARBOUR

FALL 1997

Original watercolor by Anne W. Ray

WHAT'S NEW

AT ABACO BEACH RESORT & BOAT HARBOUR? A LOT!

Abaco Beach Resort is better than ever! We're giving our property a $1.8 million face lift. In addition to re-styling the reception building and revitalizing the landscaping throughout most of the resort, twenty rooms will be entirely refurbished and re-tiled. Individually controlled central air conditioning will be installed in each room, and a handsome marble-topped wet bar will be added. The sliding glass doors which lead to each room's private terrace will be replaced, and the front door will also be changed. The bathrooms will be opened up to accommodate spacious double-sink vanities in lustrous black marble. All the fixtures in the bathroom will also be new.

And, we're re-vamping five of our villas as well; the sixth was refurbished less than two years ago. The villas will be tiled throughout and central air conditioning will be installed. All windows and sliding glass doors will also be replaced. The villa kitchens will be entirely updated with handsome new cabinets, counter-tops and appliances.

Artist's rendering of a villa interior.

The bathrooms will also be completely re-done with marble, natural stone tile and new fixtures. The villas are ideal for families and for couples traveling together. Now, they will offer even greater comfort and convenience.

Because we also recently finished 32 deluxe rooms in another building, the work on property will not disturb you in the least. We expect to have the new rooms completed by December 15, and the villas by late December. We invite you to visit us for a weekend or a week! As the holidays approach, shun the stress of the season with an escape to the serenity of Abaco Beach Resort. Remember, we're just under an hour's flight from South Florida on American Eagle, Gulfstream, US Airways and several other airlines!
